

Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society
Community Lecture Series

CATS:

Is My Cat Crazy ... Or Am I?

Presented by

Marta Edmonds, Feline Manager
Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society

WHEN: Tuesday, May 27 * 7 to 9 PM

TOPIC: Have you ever wondered if you're the only one pulling your hair out because your cat doesn't like her litter box, or keeps you awake all night, or chats too much? Have you ever wondered if you're the only one whose cats seem to hate each other? This class will cover common issues owners have with their new and not-so-new feline friends. Handouts will be provided during class, but feel free to bring questions along!

PRESENTER: Marta Edmonds is our feline manager. She enjoys her work here immensely and finds the most rewarding aspect of the job is finding cats their new homes. She also enjoys fostering kittens and playing with her own cats at home.

LOCATION: Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society, 2700 Ninth Street (at Carleton) in the Training Room. Seating is limited. People only please.

REGISTRATION: Contact the BEBHS Training Department at 510-845-7735 ext. 22, or email training@berkeleyhumane.org. For more information, visit our website: www.berkeleyhumane.org. No pre payment is required.

COST: A $10 + donation is requested at the door to support the shelter animals at BEBHS.

2700 NINTH STREET – BERKELEY CA – 94710
PHONE: 510-845-7735 FAX: 510-845-3652