THE TRAINING GAME: SHAPING BEHAVIOR THE WAY YOU WANT IT

Presented by

Nancy Frensley, CAP 2, CPDT
Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society K-9 College

WHEN: Wednesday, March 26 -- 7 to 9 PM

TOPIC: Shaping your dog's behavior and teaching your dog or cat or other pet skills can be done effortlessly and seamlessly if you understand how the process works. Play the training game yourself to get a first-hand look at reinforcement training. This workshop will have you playing the game, along with lecture and demonstrations of clicker training with dogs.

PRESENTER: Nancy Frensley, CAP 2, CPDT is the manager of our K-9 College training programs. Besides her certifications in pet dog training and competency assessment as a clicker trainer, she is currently completing her Certification as a Dog Behavior Counselor. She has been training and solving behavior problems using cutting edge techniques for twenty five years and has delightful and insightful demonstrations with her fabulous dogs to teach and entertain you with.

LOCATION: The Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society, 2700 Ninth Street (at Carleton) in the Training Room. Seating is limited. People only please.

REGISTRATION: Contact the BEBHS Training Department at 510-845-7735 ext. 22, or email training@berkeleyhumane.org. For more information, visit our website: www.berkeleyhumane.org. No pre payment is required.

COST: A $10 + donation is requested at the door to support the shelter animals at BEBHS.
