MUSIXSHARE RELEASES “STILL STANDING”, A COMPILATION FEATURING BAY AREA MUSICAL ARTISTS TO BENEFIT THE BERKELEY EAST-BAY HUMANE SOCIETY (BEBHS).

Oakland, CA, December 8, 2010: MusixShare, a social enterprise bringing together musical artists and the causes they support, announced the launch of their website today with the release of their first digital Cause Compilation, “Still Standing”.

“Still Standing” brings together the talents of several San Francisco-Bay Area artists including, Luce, Maurice Tani, Jenn Courtney & 77 El Deora, Karmacoda, Farewell Typewriter, Roadside Attraction, The Whitehalls, Two Way Radio, and Vanessa and Her Many Moons, to benefit the Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society who are focused on rebuilding after a devastating fire on May 20, 2010.

“Still Standing”, a title which exemplifies the unbreakable spirit of the Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society, is truly a winning collaboration between independent artists who care for a cause that matters.

“The Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society really appreciates the support of these fantastic Bay Area musical artists and the opportunity to partner with MusixShare on their first Cause Compilation”, commented Katherine O’Donnell, Director of Development and Communications. “Still Standing” is meaningful to us on so many levels and really showcases music and technology coming together to make positive change!”

“Still Standing” is available now for purchase and download at www.musixshare.com.

About MusixShare

MusixShare is a social enterprise bringing musical artists, causes, and their fans together to make the world a better place. When music is purchased through the MusixShare site, a portion of that sale goes to a cause or charity. You support the music and artists you like and a cause or charity benefits, everyone wins. In addition, popular and emerging artists come together on MusixShare digital Cause Compilations to support timely and specific causes. Music can change the world!
